

What Did I Sign??

Buckeye Elementary

School District

Acceptable Use Policy

(AUP)...EXPLAINED!

Operating a computer is like operating a car...why?

Both have sets of rules to keep people safe.

So what I promise
when I signed the BESD AUP policy?

I promise not to VANDALIZE school equipment.

If I do...

- Any vandalism will result in the loss of computer privileges, disciplinary action, and possible legal action.

I promise to abide by the rules of Network Etiquette.

Meaning...

I will not enter another student's folder in attempt to vandalize or delete
their work.

I will not use another students password in an attempt to access
their account.

I will not attempt to access inappropriate web sites.

- I will not attempt to access obscene photos.
- I will not use inappropriate language.

I will not use school computers for non-educational purposes.

I will not use the school computers to play non-educational games.

I will not click on pop
up advertising.

I will not download
or install software.

- I will abide by copyright laws.
- I will not conduct plagiarism.

Inappropriate use may result in...

- Suspension of privileges for a period of time.
- Cancellation of privileges for the year.
- Legal referral

The use of BSD computers is a privilege not a right.

BE SAFE...

BE RESPONSIBLE
